windy here tonight (20th) & the barometer falling, but much hope for the best. It is very difficult to say what time we may arrive but I will venture to say that we shall be between Malmesbury & you at 5.30 P.M. Miss Newell was here tonight when I got home; (working late on 4th of the holidays (?)) she send her love to you all. Am sending Walter a card tonight. Give my love to Lassie & tell her she owes me a p.c. Don't you worry about making elaborate arrangements as Jack & I can sleep anywhere. Mrs E. Jones here now. Yrs.
